Bio:

June Cline was born to help people bring out their AMAZING qualities! She was also born a Southern girl in Oak Park, Ill. She grew up in Alabama and Georgia and currently resides in Tempe, AZ, which has some of her Southern relatives suspect that she is cavorting with "Yankees!"

June has been a professional speaker and media personality for more than 13 years and has performed nationally and internationally for hundreds of distinguished association and fortune 500 audiences.

Formerly an expert from the college and financial industries, June is also the founder and CEO of Your Amazing Attitude, Inc. A company dedicated to human happiness and to making the world playfully serious about serious success.

June is one of the top 1% of people throughout the world to receive the prestigious Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) award for achievement in professional speaking. She is also part of an elite team as a Certified 6 Advisors Coach and Facilitator helping people discover the thoughts that are supporting or sabotaging their success.

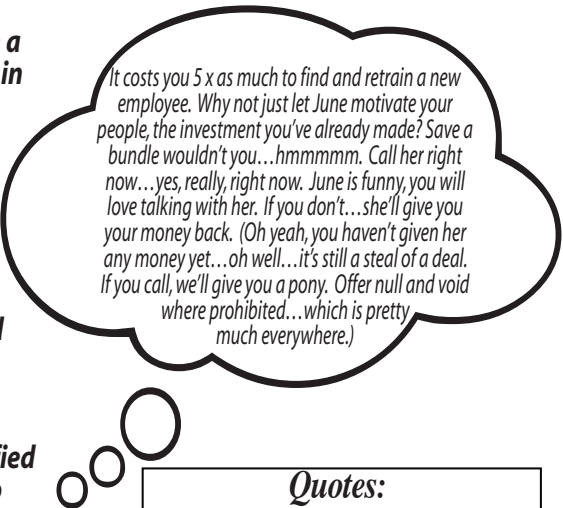

A member of the National Speaker's Association, the International Federation of Speakers, June is listed in Who's Who in professional speaking.

Author of helpful and humorous books and audio products, her most recent popular book is called Is it God or Is it Gas? Intuition vs. Indigestion. Proving that humor prevails within the human spirit!

Her forthcoming inspiring book called Your Amazing Attitude, will assist others in creating what they want in their lives. It's due out early next year.

When audiences hear June's inspirational Keynotes and Workshops, it's guaranteed they will leave with their motor running high, joy in their heart and enthusiasm to burn!

Playfully serious about serious success!

It costs you 5 x as much to find and retrain a new employee. Why not just let June motivate your people, the investment you've already made? Save a bundle wouldn't you...hmmmmm. Call her right now...yes, really, right now. June is funny, you will love talking with her. If you don't...she'll give you your money back. (Oh yeah, you haven't given her any money yet...oh well...it's still a steal of a deal. If you call, we'll give you a pony. Offer null and void where prohibited...which is pretty much everywhere.)
